

Q	I understand you were a witness to this accident; is that correct?
A	I happened to be there just as the car came around the corner; that's correct.
Q	I can't recall the exact time. Do you remember the time of the accident?
A	I believe it was 3:30. I don't know for sure.
Q	I didn't mean to interrupt you.
A	I was just going to say, I can't be sure of the time. I think that's the correct time.
Q	I don't want to put words in your mouth, but you're saying, "I can't be sure of the time."
A	That's correct. I couldn't say for sure. I think I just came out of the store when it happened. I didn't believe it when I saw it happen. I couldn't find my cell phone to call the police.
Q	I believe you mentioned the store. I can't recall a store at that location.
A	It's on the corner. I think it's an Ace store. I don't want to speculate, though.
Q	Did you see what kind of car hit this Buick?
A	I can't be sure of this, but I think it was a blue Lincoln. I couldn't believe he didn't stop. I don't remember the license plate number.
Q	I can't remember if you mentioned this, but did you give a description of the driver to the police?
A	I don't remember. I believe it was a male with a baseball cap. I think he had a beard. I can't recall anything else.
Q	Do you know if there was anyone else in the car with this man?
A	I couldn't see anybody. I didn't believe there was anyone else.
Q	How long did it take the police to get there, if you remember?
A	I believe it was less than five minutes. I happened to stay there until they arrived.
Q	You believe it was less than five minutes?
A	I can't be sure, but I didn't believe it was longer than that.
Q	I think we're about done here. I don't want to repeat myself.
A	I understand you want to be thorough, but I can't recall anything else about the accident.
