

Final Consonants -GT
The tooth fairy is a myth.
Our booth at the faith conference was successful.
We plan to go south with the youth group.
I took an oath to watch my mouth.
Math is such a challenge for both of them.
I loathe talking about death.
I have faith that she will pass this math class.
She has lost both teeth in the front.
He gave the dog a bath.
To soothe the child, she gave him a warm bath.
She was fourth in line at the youth festival.
An oath is promising to tell the truth.
The path she took is not far from the bath house.
My tooth was knocked out of my mouth.
The death notice was in the North Star newspaper.
What is this car worth to you?
Have faith that the truth will prevail.
What month will you be at the booth?
Is the river north or south of town?
Her health is more important to us than her wealth.
What was the width and length of the table?
After losing her tooth, she could only drink broth.
The warmth of the fire is very soothing.
That expensive cloth is a sign of wealth.
The birth went very smoothly.
Warmth is soothing to a toothache.
The growth of baby teeth happens at 9 months.
The youth bathed in the river south of the city.
Faith is important in spiritual growth.
She will make a smooth transition into the math club.
He measured both the length and width of the room.
I noticed his growth this month.